Phase 1b - 1 minute talk

Preparing your talk

You are given ..... minute to think about what to say. It's important to use this time well. Some students find it useful to make notes. These can help you to keep talking and can help you to feel calm too! Your notes should be key words or bullet points only – you don't have time to write whole sentences. Spelling and handwriting are not important – the examiner does not see your notes – they are only for you.

You should also think carefully about the verb tense – are you talking about every day? the past? something you'd like to do in the future?

1 Look at this example:

You are going to tell your partner about your favourite time of the year, for example spring or summer, and why you like that time of year.

Notes / bullet points:

- spring / summer
- nice weather
- warm / not cold / sunny
- holiday
- beach / park / garden
- clothes

2 Look at the next example. Write some notes:

You are going to tell your partner about the things you do on Sundays and what you did last Sunday.

3 Make notes/ bullet points for the following examples.

You are going to tell your partner about a town you enjoyed visiting and what you enjoyed about it.

You are going to tell your partner about what you did on a normal day last week and what you liked about it.

You are going to tell your partner about a teacher you liked and what you learned from that teacher.

You are going to tell your partner about a place you visited and what you did when you were there.

You are going to tell your partner about a day when you were very happy and why you felt so happy.

You are going to tell your partner about what you did last weekend and what you'd like to do next weekend.

4 While your partner is talking, it's a good idea to make notes about the questions

you want to ask at the end.

You can write question words:

why?

when?

who with?

Think carefully about the verb tense – are you talking about every day? the past? something you'd like to do in the future?
