

Modal Verbs

Mustn't    Can't    Should    Shouldn't    Would    Might    Could    Must

Rewrite these sentences substituting the underlined words by a modal verb:

a- It is not very probable that Dorothy will arrive from Brazil before July.

Ann ..... arrive from Brazil before July.

b- That's top secret: it is not allowed to say anything about it.

That's top secret: you .....say anything about it.

c- Well, I advise you to buy that CD-set from the greatest hits of the Queen.

Well, you ..... buy that CD-set from the greatest hits of the Queen.

d-Look, there's some light on the 1st floor. Patrick is certainly at home.

Look, there's some light on the 1st floor. Patrick ..... be at home.

e-I heard a car approaching our house. It is certainly Barbra and Tim coming to our party.

I heard a car approaching our house. It .....be Barbra and Tim coming to our party.

f-I wouldn't be surprised if we saw Adriana shopping for her party here.

We .....see Adriana shopping for her party here.

g-The team has walked several miles, they are all very tired. Do something about it: let them rest.

You .....let the team rest.

h-Dogs are not allowed in the new restaurant by the river.

You .....take dogs into the new restaurant by the river.

Key:

Might	mustn't	should	must	must	could	should mustn't						